The Smart Choice

Meet Newton.

Why Newton? We chose the name for the new J&L web site because of the positive association it shares with Sir Isaac Newton. By its very nature, the name suggests discovery and brainpower.

Every day, technology and e-commerce bring new challenges to business. Our new Web site's e-business capabilities will meet those challenges with a fusion of innovation and common sense. You'll discover all sorts of intelligence with Newton, including a brand new way of doing business.

Newton is accessible.

Newton gives you fast, convenient and complete access to refiner parts and screen cylinders 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Access Newton via the J&L Fiber Services site at www.jlffiberservices.com anytime to select products, generate instant quotes, place orders and track order status. Newton is always ready to help, with pull-down menus, cutaway drawings, graphic prompts, parts lists, help screens and more.

Newton is evolving.

You'll be amazed at the things Newton can and will do. The Newton site will grow in intelligence and functionality to match the J&L Fiber Services e-business vision of making your life easier. You'll receive automatic e-mail announcements whenever we add a new feature or function to Newton.

We'll also add more features and services as we receive feedback from our customers. Let us know what you'd like to see Newton accomplish, and we'll consider building it into the system.
